5.1.1. Northside manages properties which are designated for particular target groups. These properties are accompanied by contractual obligations, support agreements and specialized case management services.

5.1.2. Northside will ensure that tenants living within a designated purpose property receive formal support with the aim to:

- 5.1.2.1. Resolve crisis;
- 5.1.2.2. Re-establish family and community ties where appropriate;
- 5.1.2.3. Re-establish the capacity of the tenant to live independently, achieve sustainable housing and social inclusion; and

- 5.2.2. Tenants can request modifications to be made to the property to enable the property to meet their needs, allow them to live in the home longer and to support their overall health, safety and wellbeing.
- 5.2.3. Alteration and modification applications will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Decisions will be made in line with Housing ACT's guidelines and Northside's Strategic Plan and operational requirements.
- 5.2.4. Applications for alterations and modifications can be submitted to Northside in writing. Work surrounding the alterations or modifications must not start until approval has been granted.
- 5.2.5. Tenants will be informed in writing about the outcome of their application. This may include any conditions attached to an approval. Where an application is refused, the tenant may submit a revised proposal.
- 5.2.6. If the tenant causes any damage installing or removing a fixture, or when attempting to make an alteration, the cost of repair must be covered by the tenant.

5.3. Inspections

- 5.3.1. Prior to the start of a tenancy, Northside will inspect the property to confirm that it is suitable for letting, as per the Residential Tenancies Act. For more information on 'starting a tenancy' inspection, please see Establishing a Tenancy Policy 5.4.
- 5.3.2. Northside will conduct an initial property inspection within the first month of moving in and routine property inspection every 6 months thereafter. An 'end of tenancy' inspection will occur within the last month of the lease.
- 5.3.3. To complement the routine inspections that take place every 6 months, Northside may elect to conduct property visits or follow up inspections on its properties. These visits will be pre-arranged with the tenant via the issue of a written notice in compliance with the Residential Tenancies Act. The purpose of these property visits may include:

- 5.3.4. Prior to routine inspections, Northside will notify the tenant of the inspection in writing in accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act.
- 5.3.5. Tenants are required to facilitate access to their property for routine inspections. Where tenants do not provide access, Northside may issue a breach of tenancy notice and apply to the ACT Civil and Administration Tribunal (ACAT) for an order to access the property or to end the tenancy.
- 5.3.6. At the end of the tenancy, Northside will conduct an inspection of the property to establish its condition and to determine what further action may be required by Northside or the tenant in line with the End of Tenancy Policy.
- 5.3.7. Throughout each inspection process, Northside staff must ensure that proper records are kept, including photos of the property. These records will be stored securely in line with Northside's Privacy Policy, and will be used to facilitate follow-up, including any corrective action.

5.4. Keys

- 5.4.1. Northside will provide tenants a full working set of keys on the day they sign the Tenancy Agreement.
- 5.4.2. Northside will keep a spare set of keys to the property and will use the keys to access the property as per the conditions stated in the Renting Handbook.

5.5. Utility Charges

- 5.5.1. The tenant is responsible for all utility usage charges at their property, in accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 (ACT).

Document Type: Policy	Doc Ref No.: TEN-POL-02	Distribution: Tenancy

5.5.2. For more information, please refer to the Rent, Bonds and Other Charges Policy.

5.6. Visitors and Additional Occupants

5.6.1. Visitors

5.6.1.1. Northside understands that tenants may wish to have a relative or friend stay at their property. If this does not result in overcrowding and can be accounted for within the tenant’s support plan, tenants will be permitted to have visitors at their property for a period of up to 28 days in any 6-month period. If a tenant wishes to have their visitor stay longer than 28 days in any 6-month period, they must apply for the visitor to be approved as an additional occupant in writing.

5.6.1.2. Tenants are responsible for the behavior and actions of any visitors to their property and should their behaviors or actions breach Northside policies, procedures or agreements Northside may choose to take action to issue a breach notice or terminate the tenancy.

5.6.1.3. Tenants will be responsible for the costs of any property damage, cleaning, repairs or maintenance work required as a result of a visitor.

5.6.2. Additional Occupants

5.6.2.1. If a person wants to reside at the property and become an additional occupant, the tenant must first apply to Northside in writing for approval and provide income details for the additional person/s.

5.6.2.2. Northside will assess applications for additional occupants. In addition to household income, Northside will consider:

5.6.2.2.1. Property size and occupant capacity. The application will be declined if it causes overcrowding (Note: Transfer based on overcrowding due to the additional occupant will only be considered under exceptional circumstances).

5.6.2.2.2. If the current tenant has outstanding or overdue rent arrears and/or has outstanding or overdue non-rent debt.

Document Type: Policy	Doc Ref No.: TEN-POL-02	Distribution: Tenancy
Version No.: V3	Effective Date: 03/2023	Northside Community Service

5.6.2.2.3. Whether all internal and external accommodation options have been explored.

5.6.2.2.4. Whether a household change would impact a tenant's eligibility.

5.6.2.2.5. Whether the proposed occupant is a former Northside tenant. Any people who have a history of tenancy management issues or anti-social behavior are unlikely to be approved.

5.6.2.3. Where additional occupants are suspected of residing in the property without approval, Northside will request evidence of this person(s) permanent residence at another address, i.e.: lease agreement, current utility account, Centrelink statement etc. Failure to provide this evidence will result in the person being considered an unauthorised occupant:

5.6.2.3.1. Northside will consider that the tenant of the property is breaching their Tenancy Agreement and may take legal action.

5.6.2.3.2. Tenants who do not inform Northside, in writing, of an additional occupant exceeding a stay longer than 28 days in any 6-month period will be in breach of their agreement. The additional occupant may be considered an unauthorised occupant, which may result in termination of the tenancy, as per the End of Tenancy Policy.

5.6.2.4. If an additional occupant is approved, tenants will be advised that the amount of rent they pay may increase. A rent review will be included as part of the application process; the rent will adjust from the very first payment due after the change. Should there be a delay in informing Northside of an additional occupant at the property, the rent increase will be backdated to the date of the change.

5.6.2.5. Visitors and additional occupants must comply with Northside policies and procedures, including the Tenancy Agreement.

5.7. Absence from Property Procedure

5.7.1. Short Term Absence From a Property

5.7.1.1. While tenants are not required to seek approval for shorter-term absences, tenants are encouraged to notify Northside as this aids with management and protection of the property.

5.7.2. Long Term Absence From a Property

5.7.2.1. The approved tenant must seek approval from Northside in writing to be away from their property for more than four weeks, even if other authorised members of the household remain in the home while the tenant is away. Northside may ask the tenant to provide evidence to support the absence.

5.7.2.2. Requests for absences of between three and six months may only be approved in very exceptional circumstances.

5.7.2.3. Northside may decide to allow an absence for between three and six months, however the client must be able to show cause and produce evidence of exceptional circumstances, not including the incarceration of a tenant.

5.7.2.4. Northside will assess tenant requests for leave on a case-by-case basis, considering the purpose and/or necessity of the absence.

5.7.2.5. Northside will consider the approval if it is satisfied that:

5.7.2.5.1. The rent and water charges (if applicable) will continue to be paid.

5.7.2.5.2. Good property care is maintained.

5.7.2.5.3. Provide current contact details to Northside wherever absence is approved, to facilitate communication as required.

5.7.2.5.4. Tenants are responsible for the property during an approved absence, including for the actions and/or interactions of occupants residing in the property.

5.7.3. Maintaining Tenancy Obligations

5.7.3.1. The client must appoint an advocate and notify Northside as soon as possible, to act on their behalf while they are away.

5.7.3.2. If the client will be away more than 28 days and the advocate is not currently a member of the household but wants to live in the dwelling while the client is away, they must apply to be authorised as an additional occupant. Northside may ask for the advocate’s income details and other information to determine eligibility for housing.

5.7.3.3. Although the client must appoint an advocate for the time they are away, the client is still legally responsible for meeting their obligations under the Tenancy Agreement. Any breaches that occur while the client is away may result in Northside taking action in the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal (ACAT) against the tenant.

5.7.3.4. Northside will make reasonable efforts to contact a client who has stayed away from their home for more than four weeks without approval or has stayed away for longer than the time Northside had approved.

5.7.4. Failure to Seek Approval

5.7.4.1. Where a tenant fails to seek approval for an absence, Northside may:

5.7.4.1.1. Charge market rent for the property from the time the client has left, or from the date the approval expired.

5.7.4.1.2. Take action to end the tenancy under the relevant section of the relevant leasing agreement, following Northside’s End of Tenancy Policy.

Document Type: Policy	Doc Ref No.: TEN-POL-02	Distribution: Tenancy

5.7.4.3. Where a tenant has been identified as having abandoned their property, staff will manage the abandoned property and goods as per the End of Tenancy Policy.

5.7.4.4. Further action may be taken in line with failure to seek approval, as mentioned above.

5.8. Application for Succession

5.8.1. Application for Succession

5.8.1.1. A succession of tenancy occurs when Northside agrees to transfer a tenant's right to live in a property owned, occupied, or managed by Northside, to another household member.

5.8.1.2. Northside will assess applications for succession on a case-by-case basis, considering the purpose and/or necessity of the succession.

5.8.1.3. A succession of tenancy involves the previous rental agreement terminating and a new rental agreement being signed by applicants who are determined to be eligible for succession under this policy.

5.8.1.4. If the succession of tenancy application is unsuccessful, time will be granted to allow the household time to find alternative accommodation. This will be communicated in writing to the household. For more information, see End of Tenancy Policy.

5.8.2. Eligibility Criteria

5.8.2.1. To be considered for succession, household members are required to apply in writing and lodge with Northside within 28 days of the tenant leaving the property or passing away. During this period, the tenant will be charged a daily occupation fee based on their income.

Document Type: Policy	Doc Ref No.: TEN-POL-02	Distribution: Tenancy

5.8.2.2.3. Have not breached the rental agreement during the term of the tenancy and be able to maintain a tenancy independently.

5.8.3. Approval of Tenant Request

5.8.3.1. Northside may ask the tenant to provide evidence to support the succession.

5.8.3.2. In assessing the application for tenancy, Northside will consider:

5.8.3.2.1. Balancing the needs of household members applying for succession of tenancy together with the needs of existing applicants on the Housing Register;

5.8.3.2.2. Whether declining the application would cause severe hardship to the applicant;

5.8.3.2.3. Whether the application would negatively impact the applicant or children residing in the property.

5.8.3.3. If the application is approved, the applicant may be offered either a tenancy for the current property under the same terms and conditions as for the previous tenancy, or a new tenancy in a more appropriate property that meets the tenant's needs. Generally, the cost of relocation will be the responsibility of the new household.

5.9. Good Neighbour Policy

5.9.1. Northside informs all tenants of expected standards of conduct and of their rights and responsibilities.
